Be swept off on an adventure holiday with Dream Guides

Based in Chamonix in the French Alps, independent adventure guide specialists, Dream Guides, provides a range of courses, expeditions and private guiding around the world.

Dream Guides was founded in 2005 by adventurer and leading alpine climber, Kenton Cool and alpinist, Guy Willett as they completed their professional IFMGA Mountain and Ski Guides qualification. The company has now grown to offer an extensive choice of skiing, hiking and climbing adventures.

Providing a personal tailored service to each and every client, Dream Guides runs a number of Alpine skiing courses ranging from off-piste skiing clinics to improve technique, to exploring the backcountry and ski touring in amazing locations throughout the Alps.

All skiing expeditions cater for both hardened ski mountaineers and also those new to touring, or keener on the down-hill, who are all looking for an exotic or remote adventure. Inspiring locations such as Arctic Norway's Lyngen Alps or Alaska's Chugach Mountains, led by world class guides, ensure an unforgettable experience and long-lasting memories.

For climbing enthusiasts there is a choice of courses or private guiding to take climbers from their first steps rock climbing or ice climbing in stunning locations, to scaling Mont Blanc, the Matterhorn and other Alpine gems.

Dream Guides is not just limited to France, their world-wide expeditions will take you to the summit of Everest, the seven summits and a number of classic Himalayan peaks such as Ama Dablam and Mera Peak to name a few, providing a bespoke adventure each time.

As well as exciting courses and guides around the World, Dream Guides works closely with their sister company, Adventure Base to provide clients fantastic chalet rentals and holidays in the French Alps.
