GETTING TO YOUR ADVENTURE: TRIGLAV

Wondering how to get to your adventure with us? We've put together some more information and tips for getting your destination. If you have any specific questions then please don't hesitate to get in touch.

You will need to fly in to Ljubljana Jože Pučnik Airport (we recommend using Sky Scanner to help plan your flights). From Ljubljana you'll need to make your way to the lakeside town of Bled. You have two options here: private taxi for approximately €90 or a shared shuttle bus (beware, only 2-3 departures per day) for approximately €30.

As we need you to be in Bled ready for pick up at 08:00 in the morning on Day 1, you must either arrange your own hotel accommodation in Bled the night before or enquire with us in advance and we can help arrange this for you.

General advice would be to aim for a morning flight into Ljubljana, therefore giving you time to explore the city a little bit before taking your preferred transport to Bled in the evening in time to check in to your hotel for the night.

On Day 3 when we arrive back down to our transport at the end of the trek, you will be driven back to Bled. That signals the end of the trip with us. Most of our customers will then choose to either stay in Bled for a night of rest & relaxation or take a transfer back to Ljubljana and explore the city.

EU Entry/Exit System (EES) and ETIAS: Important Travel Updates

Europe is introducing two new border systems that will affect non-EU travellers. The Entry/Exit System (EES) will replace manual passport stamping from October 2025, while the European Travel Information and Authorisation System (ETIAS), expected in 2026, will work like a pre-travel authorisation. It's worth knowing about these changes before your trip. Read more here.
