

An aerial photograph of a winding asphalt road that snakes through a lush, green, mountainous landscape. The road features several sharp, hairpin turns and is bordered by dense forests and rocky terrain. The overall scene conveys a sense of adventure and exploration in a natural setting.

GETTING TO YOUR ADVENTURE: NORWAY

Wondering how to get to your adventure with us? We've put together some more information and tips for getting your destination. If you have any specific questions then please don't hesitate to get in touch.

You will need to fly in to Tromsø airport on your arrival day. It's a small airport so depending on where you're coming from you will often need to get a connecting flight to get to it. Oslo tends to be the best option for this (We recommend using Sky Scanner to help plan your flights).

Once you arrive at the airport you will be met by your guide in arrivals. Please keep an eye out for your name or the Adventure Base logo. From there you will then visit the rental shop if required or make your way directly to the lodge in Lyngen. When heading back we will drop you at the airport to catch your departing flight.

It's important to remember that this is a group trip so there may be a little bit of waiting around in the airport as the rest of your group land. We try to minimise this wait time but sometimes it can't be helped.
